Wholesaler and trader of morse chain, morse worm and miter gear products, morse clutches etc.

About Us

HARCHANDRAI SONS has completed more than 50 years in the bearing business in India and has established a good reputation for itself as Authorized Distributors for Emerson Power Transmission Corp. (EPT), a subsidiary of Emerson Electric, a Fortune 500 company and world leaders in bearings and power transmission drive products. With access to various technical training programs and services offered by our principals and with our vast experience in this trade, our sales engineers can help you choose the right bearing for the right application. Besides this we maintain direct links with the manufacturing units of our principals across the world. This enables us to provide critical bearings to you at the earliest either off-the-shelf or by importing the same.
