About Us

The science of Ayurveda is a 6000-years-old natural treatment compendium of well researched and experimented natural herbal therapies. Based on these principles, Herbline is a unique range of Ayurvedic herbal beauty care and wellness products parented by Combii Organochem Pvt. Ltd. Herbline manufactures and supplies pure natural products that are authentically prepared from exotic herbs in midst the scenic valleys of the Himalayas using natural spring water for added goodness. Our products are sold and consumed in many different countries/regions through our associate or distributor. Herbline marks its presence as Herbline in East Europe, Rosveda in Cyprus and Greece, Tarani in the Czech region and Herbline in Japan. Herbline products are minimally treated and bottled to provide unmatched quality when applied correctly to their true efficacy. The miraculous effects of the flower power can be noticeably felt within a few days of regular usage
