About Us

I_design is an upcoming multidisciplinary firm, taken forward by innovative thinkers who aim to transform abstract ideas of our clients into modern adaptations of designs. A team of young architects, designers and planners with prior experience in handling projects from residences, commercial and retail projects to environmental area planning. We are also part of event and exhibition designing in collaboration with highly experienced consultants who are well known in their respective field. Starting from a kiosk to urban design, the team is very much enthusiastic to work for any level of projects so as to deliver the projects in time with satisfaction. This small firm work 24 x 7 to satisfy the needs and requirements of the clients with understanding every aspects of the projects.
