Saint-Gobain's genesis goes back to the year 1665 when Louis XIV, the King of France, commissioned it to make glass for the Hall of Mirrors at the Palace of Versailles. Since then, 355 years and still counting, there has been no looking back for what is today, one of the world's largest manufacturers of glass, among several lines of businesses. Saint-Gobain's presence in 68 countries with over 171000 employees worldwide has consistently made it among the top employers of the world. Saint-Gobain's journey into India started in the year 1996 and continues to this day, gaining leadership position in all its major businesses. The group operates mainly through its two major companies Grindwell Norton Limited and Saint-Gobain India Pvt. Ltd. with businesses comprising Glass and Glass Solutions, Gyproc Plasterboard and Plasters, and Weber (Industrial mortars) and Global Businesses (which are part of the High Performance...
