India Pistons Limited (IPL) is the oldest and one of the largest producers of Pistons, Piston Rings, Gudgeon Pins & Cylinder Liners and allied components in India.

About Us

Anticipating the auto-component revolution in India, IPL was formed by the late Visionary Mr. S. Anantharamakrishnan way back in July 1949. IPL not only became the First and exclusive auto-ancillary production house in India, but continues to maintain its pre-eminent position by working in close collaboration with domestic OEMs, helping them set a firm footing in their engine development initiatives. India Pistons is one of the flagship companies of the highly successful Amalgamations Group. The company maintains its leadership position in the domestic automotive market and expanding its customer base by consistently scaling up its engineering prowess and performance standards. IPL continues to be the 'top-of-the-mind' choice of majority of domestic OEM's due to its Path-breaking innovations in product design and need-specific enhancements in production processes. In its successful journey spanning over 6 decades, IPL has established world-class benchmarks of engineering excellence, robust adherence to quality-oriented processes, wide range of application-specific products, application of cutting-edge technologies and maintaining enduring customer relationships by consistently delivering value. IPL's major OEM customers include Hyundai Motor Company, Maruti, Ashok Leyland, TATA Motors, Eicher Motors, Simpsons & Co., TAFE, Mahindra & Mahindra, Greaves, KOEL, Hindustan Motors, Indian Railways, etc., In addition to the OEM segment, IPL continues to be a leading company in...
