About Us

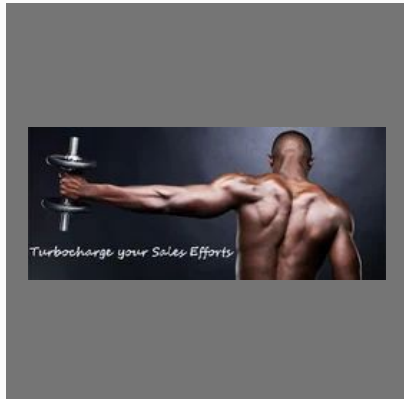

IntelliAssist is focused on providing comprehensive range of marketing communication services to business and consumer brands. The company is a full-service digital and social media marketing agency and also offers print media and direct marketing support. Our service offering includes website and custom application development, social media marketing, online reputation management, SEM & online advertising campaign management, healthcare communications, collateral creation for B2B brands, lead generation and demand creation campaigns for B2B brands. We believe that service delivery is all about passion. We have handpicked a team of passionate creative directors, visualizers, designers, developers and copywriters. Our sole purpose is to humanize your brand, we then help your brand create social engagement with its consumers and eventually build a deep bond with them. While we keep learning new lessons and trends in marketing, we keep revising our basics Behind every successful brand is a marketer who inhales consumer insights, allows the brand USPs run through his bloodstream and exhales the resistance to try new themes, tools and channels. We have worked for brands such as ASA Productions & Enterprises, Bajaj Group, Dhanraj Films Pvt. Ltd., Dr. Reddy's Lab, F-TEC Skill Development, Foresight, Glenmark Pharmaceuticals, HCL, HDFC Group, ICICI Group, JWT, Light & Shadow Films, Mage Therapy, Rash Production, Universal Communications and Wockhardt India Limited.
