About Us

DH is a venture of three dimensions of textile market coming together, by clubbing their experiences and strengths into one to provide the market with the high standard dyeing, finishing, washing, calendering, treatment and packaging to convert raw fabric or yarn into a ultimate finished product with great durability, softness, shine, colour fastness, so that end-user should not think twice before buying the product and should cherish the product long after it's purchased.

IDH consists of hard working and skillful team-members with wide exposure to global export market (to be updated about trend colours and international requirement for dyeing and finish), education of yarn and fabric characteristics (to mentor the process of your product as per the requirement of its characteristics without letting them change) and experience in dyeing and finishing of more than 20 years (to craft the product as per your requirement within provided delivery schedule).
