About Us

IXORA IT SERVICES began as a concept of computer consulting and services provider in January 2012. The planning is in progress and slowly developed with time. On January 15th 2012, the business was officially started, as a partnership firm under the name of Ixora I.T Services. Since it is founding, the business has been steadily growing over the year. The business is still steadily growing, and planning shows a large increase in business in the coming years. In trying to keep up with the growth of business, Ixora I.T Services was performing as a best services provider. We still offer the same array and quality of services at the same rates. Please contact us for more information, and we will be happy to help you.
