We are one of the prominent manufacturers and suppliers of a wide assembly of Metal Barrels. Our range of products is widely appreciated for its durability, smooth finish and resistance against corrosion caused by chemicals.

About Us

Established in the year 2004, 'JRD Steelpac Private Limited', has become a renowned manufacturer and supplier of Metal Barrels. We are having expertise in manufacturing and supplying an excellent range of Close Mouth Barrels, Open Mouth Barrels, Electro Galvanized Barrels, Epoxy Coated Barrels, Composite Barrels, G P Sheet Barrels and Customized Special Purpose Barrels. Manufactured using premium grade M.S steel and other alloys sourced from trusted vendors, our series of products has gained wide appreciation for its attributes like sturdiness, resistance against chemical, oil & water and longer service life. Being completely non-reactive, these products are used for the packaging of menthol, chemical and beverages. Our quality-centric approach has facilitated us in gaining huge reputation in the market. There is team of efficient and adept professionals, which helps us in ensuring smooth and seamless running of all operations. An advanced manufacturing unit is instrumental in meeting our production targets within specified time limit. Then, there is a commodious warehouse to store the products with complete safety. All these factors mark their contribution in the growth of the organization. All of our business operations are managed by our mentor 'Mr. Hasmukh Patel', who has always been the main strength behind the success and growth of our organization. Owing to his strong management skills and ethical business...
