About Us

Thank you for your interest in Kalai Art Printers products and services. We'd like to introduce Kalai Art printers to you and tell you a little bit about who we are and what we do. We are your full-service digital graphics center. By full service, we mean that we're partners with you on your project, and committed to your success. You don't just send us a file and pick it up later. If you need assistance with your file formatting for a specific device, or just about anything having to do with your project, our customer service reps or technicians will be there to help. Kalai Art Printers is a member of the Printing Industries Association of Southern India and has been in business for more than 13 years. Our current client/project list includes educational institutions, banks, Tamil Nadu Postal Departments and so on. We are a best-kept secret: producing high caliber prints at VERY reasonable prices. But even though we do jobs for the BIG guys, we are willing to spend time helping new companies, too. Conceived as a digital & art printers, Kalai Art Printers primary products originally included pre-press services, scanning, screen printers, multicolor printings and offset printings etc... Over time the business grew to include large and small format digital prints on a wide variety of materials. We have the technology and experience to make your project come in on time, with spectacular results.
