About Us

Since our inception in 1999, we have provided exemplary insurance solutions to 10,000+ jewellery clients. We are the first insurance consultants in India to specialize in gems and jewellery insurance. The jewellery business comes under one of the riskiest industries & we at Kataria proudly safeguard every second jewellery business in India. This is why we understand the jewellery business better than anybody. To sum it up we are obsessed with jewellery and value your treasured business as much as you! During a crisis or an unfortunate claim (loss) we are well versed with the needs of your company, we don't just provide you with a transaction, we are here to build a lifelong relationship. We provide you with a seamless process and walk you through every step from police queries, additional surveys, insurance claims etc. We convert your crisis into just a minor hurdle so that your business can get back on its feet without the slightest interruption.

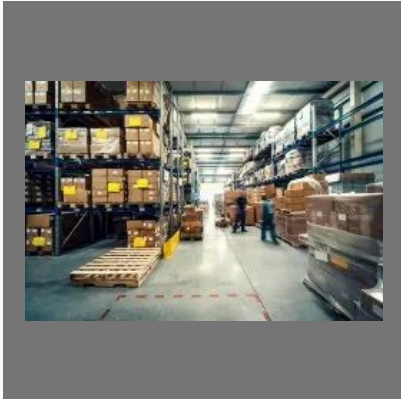

Mr Bhavesh Kataria completed his MBA in marketing and later joined his family's business. His visionary father Shri Suresh Kataria initially started off as Kataria Insurance Consultancy, later on, the Kataria team was led by his brother Jitendra Kataria were well versed in life and general insurance policies. Our passion for jewellery inspired us to create a niche in jewellers block insurance policy. Currently, we have our offices located in Mumbai near Zaveri Bazar although our company representatives are...
