About Us

Striving to reach to the pinnacle of success in the field of manufacturing Heaters, we, K. K. Industries, are successfully catering to the needs of our valued customers. Established in the year 1991, we have concentrated all our efforts to design and develop an impeccable assortment of products as per the client specifications. Over the years, we have acquired specialization in manufacturing Space Heaters for electrical control panels, Solder Pots, Heating Element Spare Parts, etc. As a renowned manufacturer, exporter, trader, wholeseller and supplier of these products, we strictly adhere to the set industry standards during the production process. All our products are widely appreciated for high durability, strength, perfect finish, latest designs, and other quality attributes. To cater to the ever rising needs of our valued customers, we have developed a gigantic infrastructural facility which spreads across a large area. Our manufacturing facility is fully integrated with advanced machinery and equipment that facilitate smooth production operations/processes. Besides, we are strengthened by a dexterous team of professionals who have years of industry experience as well as domain expertise. Owing to their dedicated efforts and commitment, we have been able to establish a strong foothold in the market.
