About Us

Kosha Advanced Homeopathic Clinic is located in the Sama area of Vadodara near Navrachna school, only 2.5 km from the city centre and 1 km from Karelibaug and Fatehgunj. It is also 1.5 km from Vadodara airport and the National Express Highway No. 8.

Patients are treated for all diseases ranging from acute to chronic and advanced pathological conditions like cancer.

Every patient is treated strictly according to the principles of homeopathy as laid by the masters. We take pride in refraining and discouraging use of all combinations and mixture treatments that are labeled under homeopathy. Treatment is imparted using classical homeopathy principles, after intensive case history and rigorous case study of individual cases.
