About Us

KR Catering Equipment was established in the year 2006. Our company has come into being as a Sole Proprietorship based firm, with a motive to serve commendably to the rising demands as well as preferences of the customers. The company has indulged all its efforts towards manufacturing and supplying a wide variety of Cooking Range, Kitchen Sink and many others. All products are approved to be in compliance to the quality standards that have been recommended by the industry as we develop them utilizing best quality raw material. Before making use of the material in the developmental process, our experts sternly check them on several parameters and policies so that no chance could be left for quality degradation in the assortment. Also, we have utilized modern techniques that enable us to stay in pace with the challenges that are constantly taking place in industry. The operations of our company are managed precisely under the skillful and intellectual guiding principles of Jagadeesh. He is the honorable Manager of KR Catering Equipment and his sound knowledge of the concerned field, administrative skills, farsightedness and years of experience have led the company growing remarkably and gaining a distinguished position in industry. We have the support of experienced and hardworking personnel, who perform cordially to achieve the specific aims and objectives of a...
