Every love story has a beautiful side to it and there is no better occasion than your wedding to show it off all. We love it when couples get creative and express their personalities and individuality through their wedding day.

About Us

We love different! Being different is what inspired us to create KV! Every love story has a beautiful side to it and there is no better occasion than your wedding to show it off all. We love it when couples get creative and express their personalities and individuality through their wedding day. Whether it's a small intimate wedding, a playful one or a big grand affair, each wedding speaks a different personality and is unique in its own way. At the same time, all weddings are amazing and don't necessarily have to be fancy with an overdose of jargon incurring huge costs. We believe in "Simplicity is Sophistication" and is something that we stand by while we visualize and create wedding designs. We fully understand your restless minds and know how excited and overwhelmed you feel with all wedding preparations coming up. Right from deciding your color palette, brainstorming on a perfect theme & design to executing it all on your wedding day, we do it all. We would work endlessly to combine the pretty and playful while you focus on marrying the love of your life.
