We are leading manufacturer, importer and exporter of Electronic Security Equipments. Our firm is engaged in providing installation and maintenance services in metal detection and other security products.

About Us

Bringing all experts together, we established an organization under the name “Leens Eelectro Tech” in 2011. We are engaged in manufacturing, importing and exporting a wide range of Electronic Security Equipments. All these products are well known in the market for their high sensitivity-detects, dimensional accuracy, low power consumption, operational efficiency and superior functionality. The entire range is widely demanded in various sectors such as airports, army, navy, hospitals and malls. Moreover, we also offering installation and maintenance services to our esteemed clients for all the products.

Our organization has set up a sophisticated and well established infrastructure at Mumbai, (Maharashtra-India). This facility is outfitted with all the requisite machine and handling tools, which is required for our manufacturing process. We have a well-established R & D department that conducts various researches in an organized manner to meet the predefined quality standards of our organization. Also, the quality controlling department installed by us, is run by some quality inspector, who ensure that the offered product range is free from any flaw. Our firm also provides the valued clients with easy shipment facility, convenient payment modes such as cash, cheque and DD and timely delivery of consignments. Owing to all these factors, we are highly demanded among the major markets of Indian Subcontinent.
