About Us

With the boom in the information technology sector the entire world community has become a global village and this change has affected the legal profession as well. Several law firms, attorneys and legal departments which were facing the challenge of resource constraints have benefited tremendously by off-shoring their back office and research operations to india.

We took this call and formed a team which is a fusion of youth and experience dedicated well qualified professionals and senior experienced professionals capable to provide integrated legal support services to the global community ensuring on-time execution of the work along with quality and confidentiality.
