About Us

Lets Makea PlanNinad Umesh Kamat CFPCM is a qualified financial planner from the Financial Planning Standards Board (India). Having started financial planning in late 2011, he has received positive feedback from all his clients for whom he has written financial plans. Gone are the days when investment was done just for the sake of earning higher returns, now is the time to set measurable goals, plan and execute the plans as soon as possible, as time is money. Gaze into the future income requirements, direct your investments towards realising your goals, and breathe easy.
