About Us

If you think that you have to passion and the talent to make it big in the media industry, then Livewires is the best place to be which offers comprehensive courses with top-class infrastructure and experienced faculty to help you make your dreams take shape. Dreams of making your mark in the media world!

Livewires has managed to earn more reputation than any other media institute in such a short period of time. The main reason for this is the motivation to offer quality training in the world of Media at affordable rates. There has been no looking back after that. Today Livewires has various centres set up across different cities in India.

Livewires Media Institute is a complete media institute where the curriculum structure of courses are designed keeping in mind the changing trends in the media, so that you have the knowledge to be better than the rest and can help you compete with the ever-growing and demanding industry. We always make sure that our centres are powered by world-class technology and experienced faculty - a combination that is extremely essential for the growth of every student. We treat each student of ours specially and give them personal attention so that they open their wings and take their flight to success in their respective professions. We are proud to have numerous success stories of our students who are now placed in reputed media houses.
