About Us

LORDS is in fact, an acronym for Logistics Outsourcing Relationship DesignerS. Thought. Sense. Method. These tenets are the beginning and end of what we do, it is our core. Therefore, simply put, Design, or how we do it, to us is greater than mere Delivery. For it is the 'Design Way' by which we choose to Deliver. It keeps our passion alive, our purpose in sight, our minds sharp, our dreams big, our targets achievable, and work, fun. Design is utility powered by significance. As most businesses expand rapidly, design has become a crucial element of differentiation and way to create new markets. LORDS aim to be an integrator in Logistics services provision and hence design outsourcing relationships in the supply chains for its customers that are agile and win more frequently in the market place. LORDS attempts to bring in design thinking into creating, managing and sustaining logistics outsourcing relationships with its customers which drive greater value proposition for customers, suppliers and their vendors. The North Star, the eternal guide to journeying and movement around and across our planet is an integral part of the LORDS logo as it is of our business. But 'our' North Star is not just that. It is made up of four arrow-signs signifying forward movement. These four arrows stand for Design of Global Network Partnerships, Design of Processes, Design of Technology and Design of Talent Management. the four key areas of LORDS' Design...
