About Us

The company was established in 1966 by the main partner Mr. N. F. Doshi who had perfect knowledge of engineering of each and every activities of manufacturing each and every parts equivalent to oe (original equipment) with a wide vision. Man has, for centuries, sought a continuous improvement in whatever he does. Some men, however, seem to seek it more than others. It is this fire to make things better, to do them differently every time, every day, every moment that distinguishes the winner from the alsoran. Our leader Mr. N. F. Doshi is one of the perfect match to above. Perhaps it is this search for perfectionism that sets us apart. From day one, we have had but one vision:perfect quality at right price our corporate mission statement reflects this very beautifully: to combine engineering excellence with the soul of splendor to deliver irresistible quality products.
