About Us

Maharaja Agrasen Hospital was established on 15.08.1991 under the auspices of Maharaja Agrasen Hospital Charitable Trust, Punjabi Bagh New Delhi. This Trust was founded in 1980 by some prominent handful of donors of the Society with the main objective to give free medical aid to every deserving human being irrespective of caste, creed and religion. It also aims to set up, manage and organize Hospitals, Dispensaries, Charitable Institutions and Medical Institutions and to provide training for Doctors, Nurses and Para-Medical staff for achieving objectives of the Trust. First project of this Trust in the name of "Maharaja Agrasen Hospital" Punjabi Bagh, New Delhi was commenced on 15th August 1991. This Hospital has been so named because Maharaja Agrasen was a noble King of Agroha (Haryana) in whose heart the welfare of his subjects was the supermost. In his kingdom Education and Medical facilities were free to everybody irrespective of caste, religion, race and etc. The Hospital was started with a humble beginning of 65 beds and within a short span of 20 years this hospital has reached to the stage of 400 bedded multi-super specialty catering to the population of not only Delhi but also from the adjoining states such as Haryana, Punjab, Rajasthan, U.P. and also remote areas like Assam, Orissa etc. Maharaja Agrasen Hospital is providing round the clock services in the department of Imaging,...
