About Us

Markup Procurement Services Private Limited is established in the year of 2016. We are leading of Wholesaler, Trader, Retailer, Service Provider of machine bed column, large shaft slange, power transformer, distribution transformer etc. Presently, we are implementing a major capacity expansion program, which on completion will allow us to tackle global market opportunities even more insistently and capture larger market share. At the same time, the company continues to pursue opportunities for inorganic growth that would result in a distended environmental occurrence and customer base.
