About Us

Meddiff Technologies came into being on April 1, 2007 (formerly known as MedSphere Technologies). It took on the challenge of developing medical imaging solutions that offer high accessibility at low costs without compromising on quality. Our advanced teleimaging solutions transmit high quality DICOM images necessary to diagnostic usability at affordable rates and quick time. They are US FDA approved, HIPAA compliant, and conformant to HL7 standards. We are also in the process of getting CE certified and follow iHE framework.Our groundbreaking medical imaging solutions leverage on the outreach and cost effectiveness of the web and streaming technology. Our efficient products, solutions and customer service have received wide acclaim and won us many loyal customers globally. Our products stand out in the Medical Teleimaging market with virtually no competition.
