About Us

Millenniumsoft Business Solutions is the one-stop shop for the mid-sized business which believes it just can't play with the big boys. Does this sound like you?

- Your company is growing, but your frustration with your technology is growing even faster.
- Your sales force is dispersed and working hard, but you only have a hunch who your top performers are.
- Your business has grown to the point where you no longer can keep track of trends in your head, but you don't yet feel you can afford the tools it would take to keep up with your growth.

What Millennium Soft offers is an integrated solution that covers your business processes from soup to nuts: customer relationship management (CRM) and enterprise resource process (ERP) as part of one seamless package. This allows you to:

- Spot trends and anticipate customer needs.
- Track inventory meaningfully - no more partially-filled orders, and no more stock collecting dust.
- Develop and track sales targets based on past performance and comprehensive projections.

In short, the tools that Fortune 500 companies have at their fingertips . . . but at a price point which is within the budget of much smaller companies. A relationship with MillenniumSoft results in a comprehensive solution which has all these benefits, but also comes with the support, training, and compatibility which make your investment worthwhile.

- 24/7 support.
- comprehensive...
