About Us

Mercy Hospital, positioned in Park Street, the heart of the city of Kolkata was set up in 1977 by the respected and well loved Rev. (Dr.) D. Mark Buntain. The hospital is now a 173 bedded tertiary level hospital delivering health care holistically to approximately 100,000 people every year.

Here, patients are supported by a well trained and highly qualified group of consultants. The hospital has a variety of services which includes a recently updated surgical facility, three critical care centers, a mother & child center with a well-equipped Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU), an emergency & trauma unit, a complete diagnostic unit which includes radiology with CT scanning facility, cardiology and pathology, as well as general medical and surgical recovery wards, 24 hours Pharmacy and critical care ambulances.

The NICU is the first National Neonatology Forum Accredited Level II Special Care Neonatal Unit in West Bengal.

The nursing team at the hospital is one of the finest in the city and they are trained and prepared for any kind of exigency. They comprise a hard working team, committed and dedicated to care and service.

The forty bedded adult intensive care unit is backed by trained and experienced medical officers and nursing staff. The revamped and upgraded Intensive Coronary Care Unit (ICCU) is preferred and praised by Cardiologists in the city as well as from around India, including the Christian Medical College (CMC),...
