About Us

With a rich heritage dating back to the 1750s, Coats is the world's leading industrial thread and consumer textile crafts business employing 20,000 employees in over 70 countries across six continents around the world.

We have an unrivalled access to global markets and customers, and are recognised as the market leader across many areas of operation. Almost 1 in 5 garments on the planet are held together with Coats' thread and our products are sold in over 100 countries.

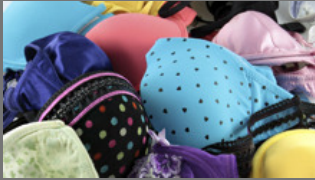

Our Industrial Division is three times the size of its nearest competitor in industrial thread, and our Crafts Division is the number one global player in the textile crafts market.
