About Us

Established in 1968, Master Tara Singh Memorial College For Women, Ludhiana was the first women college to commemorate the cherished memory of Master Tara Singh – an educationist and a great visionary-to serve the cause of women education with about 150 students and 7 teachers. It has taken a tremendous leap in the academic, cultural and sports field and has carved an enviable niche for itself among the women colleges of the city. From a cramped and threatening space, the shifting of building to wider, better and greener space bears a testimony to the tremendous strides it has taken since its inception. The growth of the institution is phenomenal. From a small sapling, it has paved its way to full bloom. In addition to degree courses in Humanities. Commerce, B.C.A., and also running the courses like M.A. Punjabi, English, Music (Ins.), Music Vocal, M. Com. and PGDCA in the college. Introduction of MBACIT is a big step towards Post Graduation Study. Our college is a pioneer Institute in Punjab to have MBACIT which is affiliated to Panjab University, Chandigarh. Our college units of N.C.C., N.S.S. and Youth Club undertake constructive programmes from time to time for the benefit of the students and society at large. Under the able and inspiring stewardship of the management and the Principal, the college has emerged as an institution known for harmonious synthesis of tradition and modernity. While preserving the traditional values, it is also stepping forward with...
