About Us

We at Neve Management Consultant Pvt. Ltd. help you to blueprint a strategy for growth to capitalize on market opportunities by leveraging on your existing capabilities, or recommending new competencies that you should build. We use a combination of workshops and consulting, to coax your organization out of its inertia and transit you into a discomfort zone that is more conducive for innovative ideas to flourish.

We believe in providing advice and service to our clients; specifically on financial service companies and their products. Although an integral part of the industry, we have strong opinions against certain modern insurance investment products which we believe are detrimental to the long-term interests of our clients.
