About Us

N.I.E. has survived various types of crisis with courage and devotion and has withstood the test of time and became really a unique Institution. We earnestly hope that the students and staff of N.I.E will emulate, now and in future, the spirit of dedication and selfless service to society. The object of the founders was not only merely to train qualified engineers with detailed knowledge of changing and up-to-date scientific discoveries, but also to make them useful citizens who would play their part in shaping the destiny of modern India”.
