We are reckoned across the globe as one of the prominent manufacturers and wholesalers of an array of Ladies Garments. Manufactured using optimal quality fabrics, the garments available with us are assured to feature durability and long lasting life.

About Us

In the year 1991, we, Nova Hosiery Mills, had set up our organization in Ludhiana (Punjab, India). Since then, our firm has emerged as a reputed name in manufacturing and wholesaling a wide assortment of Ladies Garments. Designed exclusively in accordance with the latest trends, the range of garments offered by us has become the preferred choice of women. The features that make our range stand include quality fabrics, exquisite patterns, vibrant colors, fine finishing and perfect fitting. For the production of our range, we have equipped our infrastructure with latest machines and equipment. Facilitating quality and timely production, such machinery enables us to meet the demands of our clients within a stipulated time frame. We also test the quality of our products at all phases, so as to leave no stone unturned in winning clients' reliance. Our competent professionals further make sure that the products are customized in accordance with the specifications provided by the clients. It is owing to such client-centric approach that we have gained recognition in the market. Under the able guidance of our mentor, 'Mr. Aman Jain', It has been much easier for us to establish this organization in the global market. With his ideas and working methodologies, he has been able to garner the trust of our clients and achieve their utmost satisfaction. He has also motivated our team members to work even harder and...
