About Us

Vadodara a culturally rich and historically significant city of Gujarat has now a complementary venue to showcase its art and cultural in true sense. Located at Akshar Chowk , one of the Vadodara's most famous and developed area surrounded with posh localities and it cannot escape the attention of connoisseur, Pradarshini Gallery is one of the best of its kind, although primarily concerned with providing a space to show works of visual art, Pradarshini with many other amenities and versatility in forms of exhibitions to be held, makes it one of the best art galleries in town. The main aim of creating a bridge through the language of art and fashion, it plays an important role of bridging the spirit of diverse people on earth. Works of art often last forever, or nearly so. But exhibitions themselves, especially gallery exhibitions, are like flowers; they bloom and then they die, then exist only as memories, or pressed in magazines and books. Our whole design of the gallery is based on the idea to add life to the art that is going to be exhibited in this art gallery and hence we have tried merging two eras. The ethnic and a traditional touch amalgamated into a contemporary design that gains attention of the multifaceted people who are going to attend the exhibitions.
