About Us

Quancore Softech has been providing Quality IT solutions. Our core strength lies in turnkey solutions. We offer customized software development, e-solutions, IT consultancy and IT Training. We are competent in current technologies. Our Core strength is understanding the Systems from the Client's perspective. Our consultants are fully familiar with the complete Life cycle of Software Development (User Specifications to Maintenance). Our people are specifically trained in Total Quality Management (TQM) resulting in a quality and a timely product With years of experience in the IT industry, we understand the client's requirements as our very own. We internalize the client's problem and are able to give the best solution available in terms of quality, cost and time. We are able to do a feasibility analysis and suggest the best combination of tools (H/W and S/W) required.
