About Us

DCP Expeditions today, is one of the fastest growing Wildlife Photography training academies, with a strong team comprising of highly skilled and established Wildlife Photographers and veterans in the field of digital photography. We boast of one of the best panel of experts in the country comprising of renowned wildlife photographers, naturalists, conservationists, taxonomists, microbiologists, scientists, environmental biologists and digital imaging specialists. We are not another Travel Photography company. For every project we conduct, every workshop we do and in every expedition we lead, in addition to the development of photographic skill sets, conservation photography remains one of the key learning element. We help people to learn how to make better images and how to use photography as a tool to depict the untold and unseen beauties of nature. We work in association with environmentalists, conservation activists, naturalists, scientists and researchers in an attempt to impart knowledge and generate awareness amongst common man about the earth's natural history. We are also the first in the country to make a nationwide effort to make Wildlife Photography a full time career opportunity for hundreds of wildlife enthusiasts of the country. Our team of experts handhold and facilitate personalized knowledge sharing to help one sharpen the skills fast and eventually join the crew. We educate, recruit, train, empower and create entrepreneurs who in turn, take the...
