About Us

We are a dynamic and unique business development consultancy firm, engaged especially in providing consultancy services to sick and/or endangered small/tiny business organisations for their successful revival.

We also provide consultancy to the needy individuals for their personal revival. We have with us special programmes of 'personality re-building' and 'personality re-development' for the individuals who are distressed and depressed due to some tragic incident or calamity.

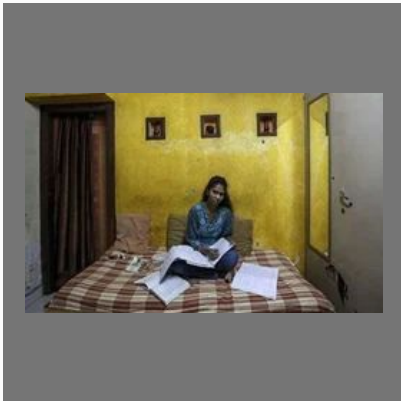

We make our services available in various important business districts in western and central India. Similarly we provide entrepreneurship development programmes for aspiring women and students who wish to enter into global market.
