About Us

RForce Management Resources's main function of business is Recruitment, Research & Data Projects and Consulting. Attracting of highly skilled workers, integrating new workers and developing and retaining current workers to meet current and future business objectives of an Organization.

In this rapidly growing highly competitive world " The War for Talent " , is being given more strategic importance by corporates.

Research & Data Projects is a full service global insights, custom market researches, firm, We use a wide range of qualitative and quantitative methodologies to drive market and marketing research projects for clients.

We specialize in segmentation studies, tracking studies, ethnographies, ad and copy testing and developing brand strategy for both established and emerging brands. We leverage a diversity of experience, rather than an industry specific model, to apply learning's and insights across industries.

We at RForce, have been inventing, re-inventing and learning to design different Recruitment Solutions to simplify, streamline and reduce Recruitment Challenges, vastly growing Manpower needs and most of all being the Asset of Corporates in reducing the costs incurred especially in Selection, Training and Retention.

RForce's Learn-Implement-Learn-Keep Learning Policy puts us miles ahead of our competitors, where we map the Organizational Core Competencies to the Position-Specific Competencies...
