About Us

RP Ceramics was established in the year of 2006. We are a leading Manufacturer Supplier of Fire Bricks, Almona Brick, Almona 28% Brick, etc. We trade this product in different shapes and sizes as per our customers' demands. It has great quality as our sourcing company manufactures it at their world-class infrastructure with the help of their technical expertise.

We have brought a range of Fire Brick which we have sourced from one of the pioneer business associates of ours. It is processed using excellent quality raw material and is pre-fired at high temperatures to achieve superior volume stability in high temperature processes. It is high-quality brick manufactured by the professionals of our associates following international standards.
