About Us

When someone approaches you with an issue that needs to be resolved, never say Its not my problem OR I dont know please check it with us we can be your solution and are always ready to give a helping hand with SAMANVAY . Even if the issue is not related to your work or your daily routine, we are there to help out. Embrace the concept of Your Problem is our problems which we can solve together. Some human beings enclose themselves in their own little world. Lets not get into the mode that if something is not part of my work, then I want nothing to do with it. Let us not get too concerned with our own career and image and avoid lending a hand when issues arise outside of our own little world. Lets not be short-sighted, self-serving which can bring a huge difference in the society. This kind of behavior has been causing immense damage to the society unknowingly. If you cannot help with the problem then try to find someone who can, here we stand for you. If it means taking time away from your present task, just call 7507330000. Cooperation between Human beings is essential in building a world-class society. A problem for one is a problem for all. So think an execute
