About Us

At 'SATI', we started our business as a Merchant Exporter in 2001, from Bangalore, Karnataka (Granite Capital of India). We soon gained expertise in sourcing of quality granite slabs & tiles from primarily South India. From there, we progressed into procurement of Granite Blocks directly from quarries & took up 'jobbing' at several factories. Our alliance with strategically located factories near quarries helped us in providing better output materials at lower prices – which in turn fuelled our dreams further. Our Quality & Service standards – helped us in achieving our clients' trust & since then, we progressed rapidly to set up & alliance with multiple Granite Cutting / Processing Factories – at EVERY STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT granite locations of India
