About Us

Seven Boats is a full-service digital marketing firm dedicated to provide strategy and implementation services for businesses looking to fully leverage the internet. We serve clients around the globe and across various industries. We work with everyone from technology start-ups to well established offline businesses looking to market online. What do all our clients have in common? They are smart enough! They are run by growth-oriented leaders who care just as much about community, giving back, and listening to their customers as they do about bottom line profits. They are all on a mission to make this world a better place in their own way. They all recognize that the internet is an extremely powerful tool that can help skyrocket their businesses. They just aren't always sure how to use the powerful tool and there we come!
