About Us

Sharad a vaze & co. was set up in the year 1983 by Mr. Sharad Vaze as a firm to service clients, primarily in the field of audit and taxation. We have more than 30 years of experience, evolved beyond the statutory audit and tax practice and have carved a significant position in audit and allied sector with uncompromising professional standards and ethics.

Our primary office is at Pune and our service offerings include assurance, risk advisory, tax advisory, corporate advisory and outsourcing. Our clients include non-listed companies and cover a broad spectrum of industries ranging from construction, retail, information technology and various professionals.

With india poised for playing a major role in the growth of the world economy, we are well positioned to take on the rising demand for audit and allied services from the domestic as well as the overseas companies/clients.
