We are an ISO 9001:2008 certified manufacturer and supplier of pressure gauges, thermocouple and temperature and electronic measuring instruments. These products are known for their high performance, accurate results and longer life.
About Us

Established in the year 1997, we, "Shreeji Pressure Gauge", are an ISO 9001:2008 certified organization engaged in manufacturing and supplying a wide assortment of Pressure Gauges, Thermocouple and Temperature & Electronic Measuring Instruments. The range offered by us includes Bourdon Type Pressure Gauge, Chemical Sealed Diaphragm Type Pressure Gauge, Glycerin Filled Gauges, Electric Contact Gauges, Capsule Gauges and Test Gauges. In addition to this, we offer Mercury in Steel Type Thermometer, Bi-Metallic Type Thermometer, Temperature Indicator, Resistance Temperature Detector, Glass Tube Type Rotameters and Small Glass Tube Rotameters, to name a few. Manufactured using optimum quality raw material, these products are known for their excellent performance, reliability, accurate results, low maintenance and longer functional life. Moreover, the products offered by us can also be customized as per the specifications provided by the customers.
