We are a distinguished supplier, distributor and trader of supreme quality Imported and Indian Coal. This range of bio-fuels is widely known for emitting clean energy with low ash, high density and better thermal efficiency.

About Us

Established in the year 2010, we, “Shree Shakti Associates”, have been involved in supplying, distributing and trading different types of Imported and Indian Coal. Our close association with some of the trusted and credible vendors of the market has ensured that we deliver only unmatched quality coal with high calorific value. Our vendors are spread across the global markets, including Indonesia. In order to generate maximum client satisfaction, we thoroughly check every product before dispatching them to the customers' end. Our large distribution network has also allowed us to deliver these products within the promised time frame to the customers. In addition to this, our clients have appreciated the range of coal for its better combustion power, less residue and higher heat & flame. Our team has always played an important role in moving us towards success. The hardworking team of professionals appointed by us, has enabled us to offer customized packaging along with our products, so as to assure the clients about secure and safe transit. Under the patronage of our mentor, 'Mr. Alpesh Chavda', we have been working hard towards expanding the business domain across the nation. His experience and encouragement have helped us in scaling new heights of success in this particular business domain.
