About Us

Sahyadri Industries Ltd. is a well known group in Building Material Industry based at Pune. The group founded by Late Shri. L. B. Patel, who ventured into the trade to timber and building materials, sensing the Urban and Rural needs for developing shelters to people of all income groups way back in 1947.

Excellence speaks through commitment. We at Swastik, are committed to value added sales. We give high quality products to our big list of satisfied Customers.

In a six decade journey, the company has brought to the fore, a plethora of products across different verticals. Cement roofing sheets for rural sectors under the brand of Swastik, spearheaded the company to become one of the most recognized names in the industry.

Further it ventured into flat sheets and cement doors under the banner of Cemply for a variety of applications.

A novel innovation from the same stable was the supply of high end anti-theft security doors by the name Entasafe, for the urban homes.

A futuristic and ambitious enterprise, the company has recently also introduced innovative sustainable building construction materials & systems under the banner of EcoPro that promises to revolutionise and accelerate the development of building material sector.
