About Us

ayurOne..com web site is brought to you by Soundarya Herbal Industries and Exports, A.P., India, family owned and operated home based herbal Industry. Our motto is to provide ancient Indian beauty herbs for everyone with a service that exceeds their expectations. Herbs are a wonderful gift of nature, compatible with both human skin and hair. They are used as powerful aids in treating almost any skin and hair problem. All the products are developed, standardized and evaluated in Soundarya Herbal Industry's in house R & D followed by clinical trials. The products are genuine containing pure unadulterated natural ingredients. Our company is GMP (Government Medical Practice) certified company.

We are committed to providing our customers with completely natural beauty herbs. Our herbal products are based on thousands of years old Indian Ayurveda system of medicine. They are the result of ancient knowledge on plants coupled with the modern knowledge on herbs provided by the Indian Institute of Herbal Sciences- a pioneer in research on herbs for many decades. We started this company after seeing the most herbal beauty products in United States and Europe are promoted as natural and pure even though the herbal content is often less than 10% and in most cases as little as 1 %. Unlike our products are 100% pure with absolutely no chemicals, preservatives and artificial fragrances. The composition of our products is 100% pure dried powders of herbal plants...
