About Us

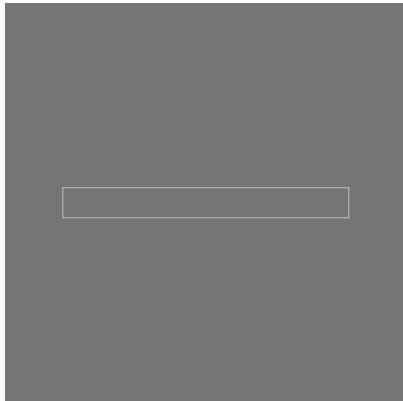

A self taught artist, I like experimenting with different media and have worked in oil, water colors and fabric painting and even used mixed media such as ceramics and acrylic on canvas. What started off as hobby more than 35 years ago is today an integral part of my life. I have been teaching since 1981 and will be continuing to innovate and experiment with media along with my students. What started off as hobby more than 35 years ago is today an integral part of my life. I have done extensive work in oil, acrylics, water colours, and fabric painting and even used mixed media such as ceramics and acrylics on canvas. Continuing my work paralleling with my marriage and two kids has been tough, however with both my daughters now married and with much more time on my hand than before, I am now venturing into a still unknown world of 'cyber gallery'. As an artist I try to constantly innovate and push the boundaries of various media, trying to achieve new effects and textures by using a couple or even all of them together. I have used oil paints on ceramic pots to re-create the magic of the Ajanta-Ellora paintings, Chinese paintings as well as murals on pots. At the same time I have used clay to create new textures and dimensions on canvas. Although my favourite style remains oil colours, I love the versatility and the fun in mixing different media to get a sometimes-surprising effect. In my online gallery, you will find works in acrylic, oil, and water colours. The paintings...
