About Us

We recognize that travel to remote places is not without impact on a landscape or a culture. For this reason Swagatam Eco Tours always have local guides and staff who also support our enthusiasm and commitment to this type of travel. In this day and age of great change on our planet, it is crucial when we do travel that the type of travel we do supports our values and ethics. Swagatam Eco Tours supports various grass roots education, cultural appreciation and land conservation projects in India through contribution of our time and profits. By traveling with Swagatam Eco Tours you too will be expressing your support for this value.
