About Us

Our company, M/s. Swastik Enterprise, was established in 1988, to undertake manufacturing of S.S. Reusable hypodermic needles of all kinds, under the name "SWENT" and as on today, we are one of the leading Reusable needle manufacturer in India, with annual production of above 5.0 million needles on single shift basis. Our parent company M/s. Swastik Industries, established in 1959, manufactures various surgical brass components, brass hubs for needles, and both companies employ 35 people in manufacturing, supervision, inspection and dispatch departments, and 5 people in marketing / selling departments. Thus all needle components viz. cannulae, and brass hubs are manufactured in-house, as per requirement of customers.
