

The India Craft House

<https://www.indiamart.com/the-india-crafthouse/>

The India craft house is an online portal which features Indian art and craft in its most unique and contemporary form and brings it closer to people across the world.

About Us

Our website is inhabited with a wide selection of products from every corner of the country, direct from the artisan or from NGO's working closely with artisan groups. The objective is to create a fair price platform for the artisans who have very Limited access to any market, leave alone global markets. The effort is to provide an undeniably unique selection of traditional art and craft translated into attractive, contemporary products, while ensuring a fair price for every single artisan whose creations have been featured on this portal. Please visit to buy products online. Global shipping available.
