About Us

In 1934, what started as a dream from a young visionary, is now a reality. RCM has become a leader in the area of Indian Organic cotton production. Leading the way in this industry of the future, RCM has been able to inscribe its name in golden letters.

Based in the city of Kolkata, India, RCM produces and exports Organic textile products. Export destinations include United States, most European countries, Japan, New Zealand and Australia.

Today, with an annual turnover of over 10 million US dollars, RCM's range of knitted and woven garments and home products have found acceptance all over the world. The product range includes garments for men, women and children, as well as an extensive range of home textiles.
